

ONE-DAY Child Abuse Prevention Education Training

~ for Educators, and ANY adult who works with children in Pre-K through Middle Schools ~

Time for Training: One day, 6.5 contact hours (including lunch and short breaks), usually scheduled between 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. (can begin and end earlier, to accommodate educator contracts)

Your Cost: $ 280.00 per person, plus optional $30.00 fee for CEUs. If Training is done for an organization or school district, Trainer Travel Expenses must be reimbursed (mileage or airfare, lodging, meals).

When and Where: Call 1-800-245-1527, to register for any training listed on our website training calendar, www.childhelp.org/gtbt or to schedule training at your location.

~training in Michigan is at the Childhelp office, Southfield, MI ~ Oct 6/Nov 11/Dec 10 ~

CEUs for Childhelp's Training Sessions are awarded through The Institute for Continuing Education, Fairhope, AL to: Psychologists, counselors, social workers, marriage and family therapists, nurses, drug/alcohol counselors. Questions? Call 251-990-5030.

For Michigan educators: re-licensure credits may apply. Certificates issued upon completion.

Each Participant receives: One GTBT Facilitator Guide, Training Handouts, 6.5 contact hours of professional development training about child abuse and effective abuse prevention education for the Pre-K – 6th Grade student. GTBT Curriculum Kits and other learning support resources are available from Childhelp, but are not included in the training cost. Certificates are issued.

Your Trainer: A Childhelp® Staff Trainer - Experienced Prevention Education Specialist.

Who Should Attend: Preschool through middle school educators, administrators, school nurses, school counselors, therapists, school social workers, child care resource and referral staff, day care center staff, Head Start family advocates and staff, public health educators, Child Advocacy Center program staff, child-focused community programming staff (Boys and Girls Clubs, YWCA, Scout leaders, church volunteers, law enforcement, etc.), school resource officers, parent educators and child advocates.

At the end of Childhelp's ONE-DAY Training, you'll be:

- ❖ A certified GTBT Facilitator, with skills to teach Good-Touch/Bad-Touch (Childhelp's Body Safety Education / Abuse Prevention Curriculum) effectively at all Pre-K through 6th Grade levels. Also, equipped to facilitate Establishing Healthy Boundaries® with students in middle schools.
- ❖ An informed mandated reporter of child abuse, equipped with knowledge of signs and symptoms of abuse and skills to advocate for children's safety from child abuse of all types.
- ❖ Educated about child sexual abuse and exploitation, with a special focus on the impact of sexual abuse and facts about offenders, and provided with resources to conduct parent workshops, staff in-service and community meetings on the subject. You'll gain access to a ppt and agenda for the 2-hour workshop for adults, "Safer Communities".
- ❖ Connected to Childhelp's national resource and support network for child abuse prevention, intervention and treatment, including your Trainer and the National Child Abuse Hotline at 1-800-4-A-CHILD, or 1-800-422-4453. The Hotline is free and confidential, staffed 24/7 by licensed professionals who, through interpreters, assist people in 144 languages. Our Hotline staff provides crisis counseling, adult abuse survivor support, parenting information, information about child abuse, domestic violence and teen dating abuse, and local community referrals.

For Training in Michigan, call 1-770-607-9111, or email: mschultz@childhelp.org to register.
Kids can't wait! Please schedule training for yourself, and your staff, today.

Reach Childhelp toll-free at 1-800-245-1527, or email: rreisman@childhelp.org
Visit our website at: www.childhelp.org to find out more